Privacy Notice (updated 20th May 2019)

Cadastre (Technology) Limited

This privacy notice describes how and why we process your personal information. Your privacy is very important to us and we are committed to using your personal information lawfully and protecting your privacy.

Who are we?

Cadastre (Technology) Limited is a company registered in England & Wales and whose company number is 11788862. Our registered address is Three Queen Street, Mayfair, London W1J 5PA.

How and on what basis do we collect, hold use and / or process personal information?

We will only collect, hold, use and / or process (together “process”) your personal information where we are legally allowed to do so.

We will ensure that your personal information is:

- Processed lawfully, fairly and transparently;
- Collected for specific, explicit and legitimate purposes;
- Adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary for the purpose of the processing;
- Kept accurate and up to date;
- Only kept for so long as is necessary; and
- Processed securely using appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure integrity and confidentiality.

For us, the lawful basis which we rely on will fall into one of the following:

- Where we process your personal information for contractual performance

This includes enabling us to take steps you request prior to us entering into a contract, and then once we have entered into a contract, to enable us to perform the contract and to provide you with the products and services. We will process your personal information in accordance with the contract.

- Where we process your personal information for our legitimate interests

We are a commercial organisation engaged in the provision of geographic information systems and associated services. We have an interest in promoting, marketing, selling and supporting our products and services. Where we process your personal information for our interests we will do so only where we have carefully considered both our and your interests. We will not process your personal information if our interests are overridden by your interests or fundamental rights and freedoms.

- Where we rely solely on your consent to process your personal information

There may be circumstances where we need to or are required to obtain and / or rely upon your consent to process your personal information. If this is the case we will give you:

- The reason for needing your consent, including details as to how we will process your information;
- The choice as to whether to provide consent; and
- Information to enable you to withdraw your consent.

Why do we process personal information and how do we process it?

We process your personal information for a number of reasons. This will be to enable you to buy or use our products, services, training, or to send you, or allow you to access, our marketing material. We only process your personal information in accordance with the law, including the EU General Data Protection Regulation, as set out in this privacy notice. Further information on these is set out below:
